

'Global Governance in the 21st Century: which way forward?'

Venue: Brussels, Justus Lipsius building, room 50.4

Closed brainstorming meeting under the Chatham House Rule

Thursday, 8 December 2016

16:00 - 16:30 Welcome and Introduction

- Alfredo Conte, Head of Strategic Planning Division, EEAS
- Antonio Missiroli, Director of the EUISS
- Lotte Knudsen, Managing Director, Human rights, Global and Multilateral issues, EEAS

16:30 - 18:30 Power politics and prospects for the UN-centred multilateral security system

Moderator: Thierry Tardy, EUISS

Speaker: Richard Gowan, ECFR

Respondents: Ben Ladd, Joint Head, Policy Unit, UK FCO
Amb Andris Razans, Director of Policy Planning, Ārlietu Ministrija, Latvia

- If power politics is on the rise can the UN Security Council fulfil its mandate to safeguard international peace and security?
- What do emerging powers want from the system, what are they ready to contribute, and what do we expect from them?
- What should the EU and its Member States be able to bring to the table?

19:00-21.00 Drinks followed by working Dinner hosted by the European External Action Service

Venue: EEAS Protocol room, 6th floor, Capital Building, Rond Point Schuman

Speaker: Ivan Krastev, Chairman, Centre for Liberal Studies, Bulgaria

"Hypocrisy, Anti-Hypocrisy and International Order"

Friday, 9 December 2016

09:00 – 10:45 The new forms of global governance: opportunities and gaps

Moderator: Dominic Porter, Head of Economic and Global Issues Division, EEAS

Speaker: Joachim A. Koops, Dean of Vesalius College Brussels and Director, Global Governance Institute

Respondents: Sebastian Groth, Policy Planning Staff, Auswärtiges Amt, Germany
Maria Cristina Russo, Director for International Cooperation, DG Research and Innovation, European Commission;

- Are we able to fill current gaps in global governance on non-traditional security issues?
- How far have regional organisations been able to establish their legitimacy and credibility? Is the EU still right to see them as natural partners, or should we be looking at other channels? Is "minilateral" cooperation a way forward?
- What challenge do non-state actors and trans-national corporations pose for traditional models of multilateral governance?
- Are there any positive new models from which we can draw inspiration?

10:45-11:15 Coffee Break

11:15-12:45 The prospects for economic governance

Moderator: Angelos Pangratis, Advisor Hors Classe, for European Economic Diplomacy, EEAS

Speaker: Denis Redonnet, Director for Legal Affairs, WTO and Trade in Goods, DG Trade, European Commission

Respondents: Steen Nørlov, Head of Analytics, Udenrigsministeriet, Denmark
Karolina Nowak, Department of Foreign Policy Strategy, Ministerstwo Spraw Zagranicznych, Poland
Ricardo López-Aranda Jagu, Director of Policy Planning, Ministerio de Asuntos Exteriores y de Cooperación, Spain

- Can multilateral trade deals still drive global economic integration in the 21st century?
- How relevant and legitimate are current groupings (eg G7, G20, APEC)? do they foster consensus or drive block-thinking?

12:45-13:00 Concluding Remarks

- Antonio Missiroli, Director, EUISS
- Alfredo Conte, Head of Strategic Planning Division, EEAS