

RESILIENCE: A STRATEGIC PRIORITY OF EU EXTERNAL ACTION

Before the adoption of a Joint Communication

Under the authority of the HR/VP

A consultation with think-tanks

EEAS capitol building

(9A Rond-Point Schuman – 1046 Brussels)

29 March 2017

13:30 Registration and welcome coffee

14:00 Welcome and introduction

Antonio Missiroli	EU Institute for Security Studies (EUISS)
Giovanni Grevi	European Policy Centre (EPC)
Alexander McLachlan	Strategic Planning Division (EEAS)
Henrike Trautmann	European Commission (DG ECHO)

14:30 What does resilience mean for EU external action?

Moderator:	Giovanni Grevi - European Policy Centre (EPC)
Speakers:	Mark Rhinard - University of Stockholm and UI Catarina Tully - School of International Futures
Respondent:	Stefan Lehne - Carnegie Europe
Summing up:	Stefan Agne – European Commission (DG DEVCO)

16:00 Strengthening resilience in EU neighbours and partners: what challenges?

Moderator:	Roderick Parkes - EU Institute for Security Studies (EUISS)
Speakers:	Philipp Rotmann - Global Public Policy Institute Volker Hauck - European Centre for Development Policy Management
Respondent:	Erwin van Veen - Clingendael
Summing up:	Martin Hetherington – European Commission (DG NEAR)

17:30 Concluding remarks

Giovanni Grevi	European Policy Centre (EPC)
Roderick Parkes	EU Institute for Security Studies (EUISS)
Alfredo Conte	Strategic Planning Division (EEAS)

18:00 End of proceedings with informal drinks